

BORONIA CRICKET CLUB

Boronia C.C is seeking the services of a Senior Captain/Coach (playing or non-playing) for season 2025-26 and beyond who can guide our club to finals and premiership success.

We play in the Eastern Cricket Association & The Ringwood District Cricket Association and currently have 4 senior sides (3 Turf & 1 synthetic sides). The club also runs a junior program which plays in the Ringwood District Cricket Association.

It has been the club's determination to continually nurture our younger group of players coming through and instilling a solid foundation of social culture and discipline within the club. We offer outstanding playing and training facilities – including turf practice wickets. The club is also due to unveil a state-of-the-art multi-level pavilion in 2026.

The successful applicant should possess:

- Strong leadership, communication and mentoring skills
- A want to improve all players in all grades
- Ability to develop and implement training plans and exercises
- Being a positive influence around the club and in social functions
- A strong work ethic and drive to succeed
- Completed coaching accreditation or Premier/sub district experience
- Strong focus on player retention and recruitment

If you feel that you have the necessary skills to fulfil this role, then we would really like to hear from you.

Remuneration is negotiable. All applicants, expressions of interest & enquiries will be treated with the strictest of confidence, as always.

Applications close: 23-MAY-2025
