PRESIDENT'S REPORT 2023 - 2024

Season 2023/24 presented the Association with quite a few challenges and changes. We began a review of rules and Bylaws and realized that there is a lot of work still to be done to update our processes. Three new clubs applied to affiliate with us. Avengers, at James Bathe Reserve, began their CCCA journey while Kerala Strikers and Melbourne Sixers decided to enter teams in a Saturday competition. We welcomed them all and trust that they will become strong members of the CCCA.

A huge shift was the introduction by Cricket Victoria of Play HQ as our competition management platform. Hopefully all the work done by member clubs will ultimately prove worthwhile as the system is bedded down and continues to be improved. Thanks go to all club personnel who have spent time adjusting to this challenge.

We experienced some issues with our fixtures and ended up with a bye in our District grade. Clubs accepted this as a temporary situation and we really need to ensure our second top grade is truly competitive. Adjustments to the fixture halfway through the season is not desirable. Let's ensure that we develop a set up that suits what we have rather than something that is not achievable in the short term.

Out of all this Tooradin became the dominant club winning six premierships, three of which were their top three teams. Congratulations to the Seagulls as well as all premiership winners on achieving success. Special mention should be paid to Chris Smith of Pakenham for his remarkable season which rewarded him with a third Stephenson medal.

The CCCA returned to Country Week in the second division and played off in the final at the Albert ground. This means promotion to the top grade which is a great achievement. Lucas Ligt of Devon Meadows was awarded the Glasscock medal for his batting during the week. Thanks go to all those who effectively organized the team. However, special thanks go to Phil Anning, and his hard working team, who ensured that the organization was first class.

While Country Week was a success for Senior cricket so too our junior rep teams achieved creditable results in the VMCU Carnival. The U12's, coached by Shane Larner, reached the Grand Final while Brodie Larner received the Player of the carnival award. Our U16's succeeded in reaching the semi final but were outpointed by a powerful Ferntree Gully team. Thanks go to all participants as well as the support staff of coaches and team managers.

Our Kookaburra Cup T20 competition flourished. Thanks to Jack Anning, who led an update of the rules and conditions. The finals were presented at Glover Reserve and were well hosted by Devon Meadows. Kooweerup won the Premier Division while Cranbourne Meadows managed back-to-back titles.

Our season was the result of the efforts of our hard working Board of Management. Shane Dalton as Secretary has worked tirelessly in the pivotal role. Our Play HQ competition Manager Narelle Stow provided hours of support to clubs who were learning the new system. Similarly, Nicky Simpson often went above and beyond expectations to assist clubs with fixture issues. Thanks also to Senior Cricket Coordinator Ben Knowles for your and your teams' efforts while our Treasurer, Aaron Straughair managed to keep a tight rein on our finances. Special thanks go to Jimmy Lambeth for his work as Umpires' representative. The system he accessed was not that user- friendly but he managed to keep clubs on track with voting and other duties.

Our Female cricket is developing slowly. It requires a much higher profile than it currently enjoys so I urge clubs to reduce the barriers which tend to discourage females from participating. The U18 girls' competition was an exciting concept attracting over fifty girls to participate. Thanks go to Peter Symons and Suki Ali from Cricket Victoria for your initiative. Hopefully with combined efforts locally, female participation will take off like it has in Australian Football.

We thank our sponsors. Kookaburra has supported us for many years now, while Bendigo Bank underpins our female cricket. The support of the Star News group through the Sports team led by David Nagel, is second to none in Victorian sport. We are indeed fortunate to enjoy the Gazette's ongoing coverage.

Rob Hansen
