WGCA AGM 2020 - Junior Cricket Report

Thank-you to all the Junior Coordinators who put in their time and effort for Junior Cricket in Season 2019/20, especially to those who are moving on, some who have contributed for 2 or more seasons.

| Chris O'Halloran | - Koo Wee Rup CC | Ashlea Gillespie | - Merinda Park CC |
| Deb Mibus | - Pakenham Upper/Toomuc CC | | |

Not to forget the Coaches, Team Managers, Scorers and volunteers, who are the cornerstones of all our junior competitions and programs. Thanks also to the Junior Management Committee, Chris, Rob, and Corey for their hard work during the past year.

As with every season there were highs and lows, challenges both expected and unexpected, and successes and disappointments, but when all is said and done we got kids out on the field, playing cricket for another year.

U16	11	0% (11)
GIRLS	7	6

The highlights for me were found in individual and team successes of Rep Cricket especially in fielding the first ever WGCA Girls Team in the Gippsland CA Junior Carnival. To throw the team together in about 3 weeks and then to witness how well the girls played and represented the WGCA was simply amazing and was topped only by Tayla Smith (OCC) taking out the comp bowling award. Of course the girls were lucky to have an amazing team of volunteers behind them Kim Issacs (C), Janet Auman (TM), Joel Smith (AC), Sean Mortimer (AC), Amanda Collins (P) and Fiona Wagner (P).

Our U16 were co-champions of the Keith Mackay Shield (VMCU) with Ringwood CA, and the U14 winning their way into the finals. Terrific effort and thanks to all the parents and team officials for their time and support. A special mention to Koby Grass and Nic Motton (PCC) who both smashed unbeaten centuries in an opening partnership against the Eastern CA.

Congratulations also to the 6 girls who played in the YPL, Steff Harris (OCC), Abby Meinecke (OCC), Alyssa Lyddy(CPVCC), Brynell D'Silva (CPVCC), Lara Johnson (KWRCC) and Hailey Dodds (KWRCC).

Obviously the biggest disappointment was the cancellation of junior finals and presentation celebrations, except for the girls who were lucky enough to play theirs before the covid-19 impact hit. Nether the less congratulations to those teams who worked hard during the season earning the Premiership Flag for their club

We will celebrate individual successes and milestones at a later stage, when there is a clearer idea of what will happen around the current Covid-19 pandemic.

Lastly, congratulations to Officer CC for fielding their first women's team in the CV Women's Community Cricket Comp, making through to the 20/20 Grand Final, and creating a pathway for our junior girls to continue enjoying their cricket.

Cheers
