PRESIDENT'S REPORT 2018 - 2019

What a season 2018 – 2019 was, with some clubs doing extremely well, with our Country Week team competing against the best in Provincial Division and were able to apply themselves quite well.

On the local competition, congratulations to Pakenham on winning the Premier flag against their old rivals Koo-Wee-Rup, and to Cranbourne Meadows and Pakenham Upper Toomuc for winning flags in District and Sub District respectively. What a year for Pakenham for also winning the Kookaburra 20/20 Comp. Congratulations must also go to the six other flag winning clubs, especially Pakenham Upper who won a total of three Premierships.

The number of junior teams is increasing each year, with the girl's competition set to expand in the coming years. A big thank you to the Junior Committee for their organisation of the Interleague games, and a big thank you to Shona Lynch for looking after the girl's cricket. Well done to all flag winning junior sides, congratulations and I hope there is many more to come.

I'd like to thank our sponsors Kookaburra Sports, ICON, Bendigo Bank and LJ Hooker for their continued support, and also the Pakenham Gazette, the best coverage of cricket in any paper in Victoria.

I would also like to thank sincerely the board members who it seems are putting more of their time into the administration of cricket.

The next few years will be very challenging for the Association and the clubs, and it is a must to work together for the betterment of cricket, with many changes possibly coming into effect next season.

Yours In Cricket
Robert Taylor
