WELCOME

Well here we are again, the start of another football and netball season. Such excitement in the air, anticipation, hopes and dreams. Finally now our young men and ladies that have been training so hard for months get to take it out onto the field/courts and let it rip.

The months between September and April seem to take for ever, so much planning, organizing and practice goes into the new season, clubs welcome back stalwarts and welcome onboard new players and families. I think it was Lou Richards that said "it's all happening", well it certainly has been. A lot has happened over the course of the off season, the West Gippsland Football Netball Competition (WGFNC) has gone out on its own and is now self-administered, with the blessing of the AFL. So much has changed and so much has happened, none of which hopefully you the supporter will even notice.

The WGFNC are so thankful to our commercial partners that are again so generous in their support of our competition, their support helps us to continue to improve our product, heighten our profile which in turn supports all clubs and players involved. Alex Scott and Sons have been onboard since the start, amazing partnership we are looking forward to continuing, Fairhaven Homes for their continued incredible support, Warragul Greyhounds again supporting, Red Onion are again streaming our game of the day, Total Work Wear are back onboard, we also welcome Evan's Petroleum (BP), Viatek and SEN are going to be broadcasting our game of the week as well. Please be sure to support these organizations when you get the chance.

Today we find ourselves at Tooradin for the season opener against Cora Lynn, two clubs that's always fight hard both on and off the field/courts. Tooradin gets to unfurl three premiership flags honouring the 2022 Seniors and Reserves football and the B Grade netballers, congratulations to all three teams and while standing there to help honour the achievement Cora Lynn will certainly be looking to upset the planned celebrations. Both clubs have enjoyed pre season bringing onboard some new names, I am looking forward to see just how well these teams gel.

Today I wish all football and netball teams the very best, try hard, play fair, exhaust good sportsmanship and hopefully enjoy your day, the season opener for 2023.

TOORADIN DALMORE v CORA LYNN

Now the hunted. Tooradin-Dalmore coach Lachie Gillespie is excited for the challenge ahead. Picture: STEWART CHAMBERS

The title of champions has sat comfortably on the shoulders of Tooradin-Dalmore for the best part of six months now – but the Seagulls will finally unfurl their first senior premiership flag in 25 years at the Tooradin Rec Reserve on Saturday.

It's quite fitting that the West Gippsland Football Netball Competition (WGFNC) will begin an exciting new chapter on the banks of Westernport Bay . . . where the main story of 2022 was told.

The Seagulls were cherry-ripe for success, with senior coach Lachie Gillespie building an impressive and strong list, that survived the undoubted impact of a worldwide pandemic to stay focussed and strive for the ultimate in football success.

They achieved it in the best style possible, proving their dominance with a stunning victory over Phillip Island in the grand final at Garfield on Saturday 10 September.

But, apart from a highly-anticipated flag-raising ceremony, that glorious day at Garfield is now just a cherished memory, with the Seagulls kicking off the defence of their title with a tough seasoning-opening clash against Cora Lynn on Saturday.

Gillespie is excited to be back amongst the action.

"We've had a very good pre-season, the players have come back in good shape, but nothing beats seeing our footballers and netballers back out there competing, and supporting each other, against other clubs," Gillespie said.

"And to kick things off with a standalone game against Cora Lynn, a club we have huge respect for, is really exciting for the club.

"We can't wait to get out there again and see if our best footy stacks up against the rest of the competition like it did last year."

The Seagulls will start the season as the team to beat this year, with club and league best and fairest winner Brent Macaffer orchestrating the chorus through the midfield.

The 2010 Collingwood premierships player brought a calmness and quality that had a huge impact on the Seagulls last year, with his on-field leadership making a huge difference – particularly when the pressure was at its greatest in the second-semi and grand final.

The Gulls also retain their leading goal-kicker from last season, with former Narre Warren star Stewart Scanlon set to cause some serious headaches for opposition defenders this year.

Scanlon has a high football IQ, and whichever Cobra stands him this week will have to be right on their game.

But success, well it does come at a cost.

Two of the most lively performers for the

TOORADIN DALMORE v CORA LYNN

Seagulls in 2022, great mates James Trezise and Lewis Hill, have signed on with Richmond in the VFL, meaning the Gulls will miss their run and carry at various stages throughout the season.

Trezise was the epitome of the modern-day half-forward last year, often found deep in the defensive half before turning and carving his opponents on the rebound.

Hill, despite his youth, was also critically important to the Gulls success, finishing runner up in his club's best and fairest in a premiership year.

When these two 'energisers' aren't playing for the Gulls, they will be sorely missed.

Speaking of sorely missed, Cora Lynn will enter 2023 with a different look, with heart-and-soul midfielder Chris Johnson just one of a handful of players that have departed the sleepy hollow from last year.

The Cobras have a habit of rebuilding quickly and simply finding a way to compete, and coach Shaun Sparks will need to be at his best if the Cobras are to be part of the action when the real things heat up in September.

After waiting 25 years for a premiership, the Seagulls have made a habit of winning over summer.

The footballers knocked over the cricketers in a T20 match named in honour of Ben Proctor, a much-valued member of both clubs, while greyhound Mobile Legend added $5,000 to the club's coffers by taking out the Warragul Cup in early January.

A total of 64 greyhounds were allocated local sporting clubs for the cup, with the Seagulls coming out on top.

Nathan Gardiner will again spearhead the Cobras forward half in 2023. Picture: STEWART CHAMBERS

We need to get used to it . . . because they'll come out on top on Saturday with a 24-point victory.

The netball courts will also be heaving on the weekend with the Seagulls to begin another quest for a finals appearance with a big game against the Cobras.

Co-coaches Kelly Haynes and Sara Howie have been working hard to get the Seagulls back their crown, while Cora Lynn has a new coach and showed impressive signs in a recent practice match against Somerville.

The Cobras were to be hard to score against this season, with Danielle Cameron and Bianca Douglas to form a rock-solid defence – but Douglas will be out for a few weeks with a knee injury which will hit the Cobras hard.

The Seagulls will capitalise...and win by double digits.

CLUB NOTES: TOORADIN DALMORE

Under 16s

This preseason the boys have all come back bigger and keener to try and have a great year as a team, last year was a tough year but the boys learned a lot so we have been training hard and looking forward to our first game thanks to all parents that have helped myself and Dan get the boys ready. Cheers, Hilly.

Under 18s

After a disappointing finals campaign the Under 18s boys started training early determined to be the best they can be in 2023. With another pre season under their belt and a lot of senior exposure in the past few months it should hold the boys in good stead. Well done, boys, on a great pre season. Now the real stuff starts.

Reserves

The boys have had a really good pre-season following our successful 2022 season. Our list has changed which has meant we have a younger side coming through and some new faces at the club which we are really happy about.

We started a little later given the length of last year with the focus being on getting the team back together and working on our fitness. We are really excited about what 2023 holds for Tooradin.

Seniors

We are looking forward to another big year in the WGFNL for 2023.

We were able to retain most of our senior list and with a few new faces and some exciting young talent coming up from the Under 18s we are interested to see how the team will look and perform.

Our pre season has looked a little different this year and has mostly been lead by our senior players.

Hopefully with a little luck we will be able to win more games than we lose and try and push into the finals for another season.

GO SEAGULLS

CLUB NOTES: TOORADIN DALMORE

NETBALL

We are more than excited for the 2023 season to commence! We have some fresh faces, veterans and of course our loyal gulls with us this year and after quite a successful 2022 across the board, we cannot wait to see what season 2023 has in store for us!

Our juniors are once again led by the one and only Jess Maher, with a hard-working junior side we can hope to see some good things in season 2023.

Supercoach Kelly Haynes will be leading our senior side this year. After a longer and harder preseason, she is 'keen to see four competitive Tooradin teams take to the court.' But Kelly isn't coaching alone this year, Sara Howie will join her.

We congratulate Ebony Dolan for reaching 100 games, incredible achievement for an even more incredible player! Congrats, Ebs!

We would like to thank our 2023 sponsors for their ongoing support to our club: Beaconsfield Roofing, DLS Kitchens, Elegance Tiles Pakenham, Frenken Homes, Gendore Tractors & Machinery, Tides Bar and Grill, Tooradin Sports Club, Tooradin Pharmacy, Southern Gates and Automation and The Tooradin Bakery.

Good luck to all clubs this season and . . .

CLUB NOTES: CORA LYNN

FOOTBALL & NETBALL

The 2023 season is finally here, my committee, coaches and players have been working tirelessly in pre season and the off season to build towards this day.

In my first year as president I have big shoes to fill, Allan Douglas has stepped away and he made a huge impact on our club across 10 years.

We are continually working towards building an inclusive, competitive and fun environment that our players and families can be surrounded with.

Lou Walsh has been appointed as our head coach for 2023 and we couldn't be more excited to see where this season goes.

Netball

With many new faces to the club in both our junior and senior squad, Cora Lynn Netball has focused on team building and fitness in the preseason. Our focus at grading was to select well rounded teams that connected well, to identify talent that has not been fully developed yet and create opportunities for progression.

This year, we are focusing on development and building for the future in all age groups and grades. Our aim is to have a strong presence in finals come August.

Upcoming Events
