From the President

What a welcome sight it was to see the red balls out and the return to 80 over cricket.

Despite the heat the players put in some huge performances with the 3rds and 4ths batting their allotted 80 overs.

Our JG Craig side finished their tournament and we are very proud of the effort coach Alex and the side put in. They even capped it off with Callum Anderson taking a hat-trick!

Nelson Alexander

Our 5ths capped off a great weekend with a strong win with Conor Cheshire starring with the bat, making 100. This was the second 100 in the day with Nguyen Dang scoring a 100 in the 3rds earlier in the day.

Our 20/20 side have progressed through to the knock-out stages with a strong win over Brunswick. The next round will be at home vs Endeavour Hills on Tuesday. Please see the flyer on the next page.

Looking forward to a great weekend of cricket.

Go Snowdogs!

Brendan Davey
President
