From the President

What a weekend it was last week with the 1st and 2nd XI's winning in front of sensational home support. It means that the 2nd XI will have a home final and the 1st XI travel away. Both games will be played against Caulfield.

The 4th XI unfortunately had a tough game and their season ended. A super effort to come up from Division 2 into Division 1 and achieve a finals berth in their first season up. Both the 3rds and 4ths will remain in Division One next season.

We wish our 1st and 2nd XI's all the best and hopefully some Grand Finals to look forward to the week after.

We also wish our Over 60's team good luck as they embark on the Echuca tournament starting this week.

We are aware of some mycricquet issues for the 1st XI last week. The match scores were working on the website but not that app, this was out of our control.

Go Snowdogs!
