From the President

We have made it to the Christmas Break! We all thought with the pandemic behind us that this season would be easier but mother nature ensured that we would have another hurdle to jump over.

I can't thank enough the work of the club committee, Kyle Adams, Anthony Jordan, club captains and team coaches for rolling up their sleeves and getting on with the job. It really was a do "whatever it takes" to ensure we had cricket being played and players engaged.

Nelson
Alexander

I will take this opportunity to wish everyone a happy and safe Christmas. I hope that there is plenty of backyard cricket being played and we look forward to seeing everyone back in early 2023.

Go Snowdogs!

Congratulations Glenn

On Tuesday Glenn Scarborough was inducted into the Victorian Amateur Football Association as Life Member. An incredible achievement for is 25+ years of service to the organization and the St Bernard's OCFC. We are very proud of you!

CONGRATULATIONS SCATTERS!

St Bernard's Old Collegians Cricket Club would like to congratulate Glenn Scarborough on his elevation to Life Member of the VAFA.

A Life Member of our cricket club, St Bernard's OCFC and the VTCA, this latest acknowledgement highlights his dedication to local sport.

Glenn still finds time to score for our First XI, serve on the club committee and champion all local North West cricket clubs on his weekly show on 98.9FM

On behalf the club committee and wider St Bernard's Community we congratulate you Glenn on this latest achievement.
